

“Perseverance is a great element of success. If you only knock long enough and loud enough at the gate, you are sure to wake up somebody.”

HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW

Lindsay Harris, AVP
AVP, Commercial Loan Officer
lharris@northeastbank.com

Lindsay has worked in the commercial lending field since 1996 and for Northeast Bank since October 2008. Her duties include assessing risk within the commercial loan portfolio, underwriting commercial loan requests, servicing existing commercial customers, and developing new commercial relationships. She is the Bank’s go-to loan officer for government guaranteed commercial loan programs, such as the Small Business Administration and the Finance Authority of Maine. Lindsay’s products include all short-term and long-term commercial financing products such as working capital lines of credit, commercial term loans, and commercial real estate loans in the greater Portland market.

Education, Licenses and Training

- Degrees in Accounting from Thomas College, Waterville, Maine and in Marketing Management from Thomas College, Waterville, Maine
- Various training from the National Association of Government Guaranteed Lenders, Ex-Im Bank, Export Assist, and ABN-AMRO

Notable Accomplishments

- Various Awards & Recognition from: the President of prior employer (TD Banknorth), the Finance Authority of Maine and the Small Business Administration (1998-2003)
- Active Member and Volunteer of Mom to Mom of Maine

Personal Information

Lindsay resides in Scarborough with her two sons, Wyatt and Blake. They enjoy the beach, visiting family, and getting together with friends. Lindsay is an advocate of “green living” and educating consumers on the use of safe and natural products for the health and wellness of their families.

Mission

“To be the change you wish to see in the world.” - Gandhi

Northeast
BANK
No ordinary bank.®