

"The hardest thing in the world to understand is the Income Tax." ALBERT EINSTEIN

Christian Bishop, CFP®, EA

cbishop@northeastfinancialservices.com

Christian Bishop entered the financial services industry in 1993 as a Tax Accountant, expanding his practice to include investment, retirement, college and financial planning in 1997. Christian joined Northeast Financial in 2002 where he continues to use his Tax expertise and unique planning strategies to pursue the financial needs of his clients.

Education, Licenses, Registrations and Training

- FINRA Securities Registered: Series 7, 26, 63, 6 and 66
- Investment Adviser Representative of Commonwealth Financial Network
- Registered Representative of Commonwealth Financial Network
- Life and Health insurance licensed since 1996
- College of Financial Planning - Income Tax
- American College- Financial Planning

Notable Accomplishments

- Enrolled Agent to practice before the IRS
- Published in several Trade Papers
- Owned and managed successful tax practice
- CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ Professional
- Former Treasurer and Board Member, Habitat for Humanity Brunswick Chapter

Personal Information

Christian resides in Litchfield, Maine. He and his three children enjoy camping and riding bikes in the summer. Christian participates in the 180 mile Trek Across Maine where he raises money for the American Lung Association and tests his endurance.

Mission

To offer superior service to his clients and change lives by arranging client's affairs in such a way as to maximize their potential.

186 Maine Street • Brunswick, Maine 04011 • (800) 284.5989 x 3618 • www.northeastfinancialservices.com